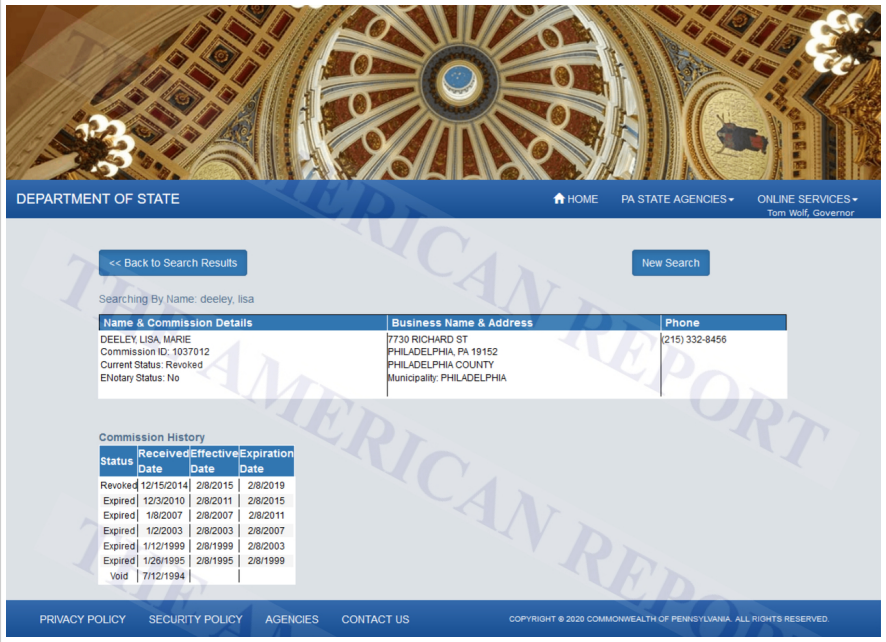
"Signatures are really the most basic line of defense in the election process," said David Thornburgh, president of the Committee of Seventy.

Deeley's current notary status is "revoked," according to the Pennsylvania Department of State. Her license expired on February 8, 2019.



During the press conference, Mayor Kenney told President Trump to "put his big boy pants on" and "acknowledge the fact that he lost," despite the fact that Pennsylvania officials have not yet called the election.

"Our goal has been to produce accurate results as quickly as possible and we've continued to work toward that end," Deeley stated during the press conference.

"We will not allow corruption to steal such an important election — or any election for that matter," President Trump stated yesterday at the White House.

According to CIA contractor-turned-whistleblower Dennis Montgomery, SCORECARD, a cyberwarfare application designed to steal elections, has been activated to ensure that Joe Biden defeats Donald Trump in Pennsylvania and other battleground states.

SCORECARD runs on THE HAMMER supercomputer surveillance system, according to Montgomery, who designed both HAMMER and SCORECARD.

Biden Using SCORECARD and THE HAMMER To Steal Another U.S. Presidential Election — Just Like Obama And Biden Did In 2012

By Mary Fanning and Alan Jones | October 31, 2020

In February 2009, the Obama administration commandeered a powerful supercomputer system known as THE HAMMER. THE HAMMER includes an exploit application known as SCORECARD that is capable of hacking into elections and stealing the vote, according to CIA contractor-turned-whistleblower Dennis Montgomery, who designed and built THE HAMMER.

THE WHISTLEBLOWER TAPES, confidential audio recordings released by U.S. DIstrict Judge G. Murray Snow's courtroom in November 2015, revealed that SCORECARD was deployed by the Obama team against Florida election computers to steal the 2012 presidential election on behalf of President Barack Obama and Vice President Joe Biden.

SCORECARD is now being activated to steal the vote on behalf of Joe Biden once again. Biden utilized THE HAMMER and SCORECARD while running for Vice President in 2012. Votes are again being stolen on Joe Biden's behalf as he runs for President of the United States in 2020.

This time, SCORECARD is stealing votes in Florida, Georgia, Texas, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Michigan, Nevada, and Arizona, according to Montgomery.

SCORECARD steals elections by tampering with the computers at the transfer points of state election computer systems and outside third party election data vaults as votes are being transferred.

SCORECARD uses a prismatic scoring algorithm that Montgomery created, to achieve the desired results by those that control THE HAMMER and SCORECARD.

In Florida, one of the transfer points is VR Systems Inc, based in Tallahassee.

Software vendor VR Systems operates in eight U.S. states.

The Democrats tested their technology during the Democrat party primaries. Otherwise Bernie Sanders would have won the 2020 nomination. SCORECARD was utilized on behalf of Joe Biden during the 2020 primary against Bernie Sanders. The Democrat primary was stolen from Bernie Sanders.

CIA whistleblower Dennis Montgomery turned over a massive cache of illegally harvested surveillance and election data in August 2015 and December 2015 to the FBI and CIA under two immunity agreements that were granted to Montgomery by Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis and FBI General Counsel James Baker.

Montgomery testified regarding SCORECARD and THE HAMMER while under oath and while being videotaped at the FBI's secure Washington DC Field Office SCIF (Sensive Compartmented Information Facility). If CIA whistleblower Montgomery had lied about anything he would be in prison today for lying to the FBI. Montgomery is not in prison.

Director of National Intelligence John Negroponte invoked the State Secrets Privilege and the Government Protective Act against Montgomery in order to muzzle Montgomery and prevent him from revealing illegal acts that had been committed by the government.

Carlotta Wells, a U.S. DOJ litigator and Assistant Director of the U.S. Department of Justice since the 1990s, told Montgomery that the State Secrets Privilege and Governor Protective Order cannot be invoked by government officials for the purpose of covering up government malfeasance. If covering up government malfeasance is the government's intention, Wells told Montgomery, the muzzle order is null and void.

The Obama Administration illegally commandeered THE HAMMER and SCORECARD. They moved THE HAMMER to Fort Washington, Maryland on February 3, 2009.

The Obama White House had an encrypted VPN in order to access THE HAMMER at will.

On December 20, 2015, as a part of a summary of information disclosed in THE WHISTLEBLOSER TAPES, The American Report revealed the following information on The American Report's official Facebook Page:

> Florida voter registration disk removed and new disk inserted for redistricting via "THE HAMMER" computer system in Fort Washington Maryland-via Navy Intel cover...(they stole the Florida election via re-districting in Florida? How many other states did Brennan and Clapper do this?)

FBI General Counsel James Baker, testifying under oath before a joint Congressional committee, stated that he took possession of Dennis Montgomery's evidence. Baker dispatched FBI Special Agents Walter Giardina and William Barnett to the FBI Miami Field Office in August 2015 to pick up Montgomery's computer hard drives.

Baker testified before Congress in October 2018:

> Can I just — I'm turning to the Bureau to describe this. So his client was an individual named Dennis Montgomery, who I believe, to the best of my recollection, he said that he had been a U.S. Government contractor and, in the course of that work, had come across evidence of unlawful surveillance by the government of Americans — and including government officials — and wanted to give that information to the Bureau, which eventually did take place.

Baker confirmed that Montgomery had provided his FBI agents with evidence that government officials were conducting unlawful domestic surveillance of Americans, including other government officials.

It is of utmost importance to recognize that Robert Mueller's FBI supplied the computers for THE HAMMER, according to Montgomery.

Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin famously stated:

> "I consider it completely unimportant who in the party will vote, or how; but what is extraordinarily important is this — who will count the votes, and how."

Since 2015, FBI, DOJ Hid Secret Evidence Proving Hunter And Joe Biden's China Ties Says CIA Whistleblower

By Mary Fanning and Alan Jones | October 25, 2020

In August 2015, CIA contractor-turned-whistleblower Dennis L. Montgomery provided the FBI and the DOJ with evidence stored on 47 hard drives that implicates Robert Hunter Biden, son of former Vice President Joe Biden, in illegal activities, Montgomery states.

Among the 600 million pages of documents stored on those 47 hard drives of electronic data that Montgomery turned over to the FBI were 10,000 pages of documents regarding Hunter Biden and Joe Biden, according to Montgomery. The 10,000 pages of documents regarding Hunter Biden and Joe Biden included videos and images.

Going all the way back to 2003, Montgomery maintains, the U.S. government continuously targeted Joe Biden and Hunter Biden with electronic surveillance via THE HAMMER.

On February 3, 2009, Brennan and Clapper moved THE HAMMER to Fort Washington, Maryland and began using the foreign surveillance system for domestic surveillance, targeting President Obama's political enemies for "blackmail and leverage."

Montgomery, as a CIA contractor, worked for John Brennan and James Clapper.

Montgomery became a whistleblower upon seeing first hand how the Obama administration had turned THE HAMMER against America. Montgomery received two limited immunity agreements from the DOJ and the FBI in exchange for evidence production and testimony.

Montgomery originally designed and built THE HAMMER in 2003 as a foreign surveillance system to protect America after 9/11.

Obama White House Provided 1200 Preloaded BlackBerry Devices To Trusted Insiders

The Obama White House provided 1200 preloaded BlackBerry devices to trusted Obama team insiders, including Hunter Biden, according to Montgomery. Those 1200 BlackBerry phones were preloaded with a special digital 'Rolodex.'

The 1200 BlackBerry devices were similar to the BlackBerrys used by Hillary Clinton and President Obama.

According to Montgomery, the Obama White House presented in 2009 a list of names of individuals who were specifically designated for exclusion from any and all surveillance by THE HAMMER. Joe Biden and Hunter Biden were on that 'exclusion' list, and were not supposed to be surveilled by THE HAMMER, says Montgomery.

Brennan and Clapper disregard the 'exclusion' list order and used THE HAMMER to spy on Hunter Biden and Joe Biden anyway, according to Montgomery.

BlackBerry devices communicated over a closed encrypted secure network known as PIN-to-PIN messaging that does not traverse the internet. The 1200 BlackBerry devices provided to Obama team insiders worked directly off of THE HAMMER.

THE HAMMER VAULT

Each of those 1200 White House-provided BlackBerry devices was set up with the capability to access THE HAMMER VAULT and the secrets it held, according to Montgomery.

THE HAMMER VAULT is a secret data center repository where valuable illegally-collected surveillance data vacuumed up by THE HAMMER, including corporate and military intellectual property and U.S. defense secrets, were securely stored and made accessible only to Obama team insiders.

.Some of the sensitive information stored in THE HAMMER VAULT may have been subsequently passed to U.S. adversaries including Russia and China. The FBI and the DOJ are in receipt of that entire body of evidence.

This information regarding Hunter and Joe Biden was known at the highest levels of the Obama Administration's FBI and DOJ, including FBI Director James Comey, FBI General Counsel James Baker, U.S. Attorney General Loretta Lynch, Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curits, and FBI Special Agents Walter Giardina and William Barnett, according to Montgomery.

An explosive website details THE HAMMER's intellectual property surveillance targets. The website lists thousands of American businesses, individuals, and organizations from which surveillance data was illegally harvested by THE HAMMER. THE HAMMER targeted a jaw-dropping number of U.S. military and intelligence officials. "

The illegally harvested data was used for the purpose of "blackmail and leverage" according to Montgomey.

"All Federal agencies were hacked and information collected on the agency, including the White House and their employees," the website states.

The 600 million documents of illegally harvested documents when stacked one atop the other stood 30 miles high.

The FBI and DOJ knew what Hunter Biden and Joe Biden were doing. They had the proof. They buried that evidence that showed America was being redistributed and sold out to her adversaries.

How Was The CIA Allowed To Operate US Domestic Surveillance Programs That Target Americans, Including US Attorney John Bash?

By Mary Fanning and Alan Jones | October 17, 2020

A new claim by a CIA contractor who became a whistleblower presents the possibility that the U.S. attorney who recently concluded an investigation into the 'unmasking' of General Michael Flynn without filing any charges or even issuing a report on that investigation had been under illegal U.S. government domestic surveillance

CIA contractor-turned-whistleblower Dennis Montgomery claims that former U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Texas John Bash was targeted by illegal CIA and FBI U.S. domestic surveillance programs while he and his wife Zina Bash attended Harvard College (Class of 2003) and Harvard Law School (Class of 2006), and while he and Zina were living in Austin, Texas.

A list of targets can be found here.

Montgomery further claims that Bash's wife Zina Bash (née Gelman), who met John Bash while they attended Harvard College and Harvard Law School together, was also under illegal domestic surveillance along with thousands of other Harvard students and Harvard professors.

In 2018, Zina Gelman Bash briefly worked in the office of Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton.

President Trump has proclaimed that he is running against big media and against big tech.

In the spring of 2020, Attorney General William Barr tasked U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Texas John Bash with investigating the 2016 'unmasking' of General Michael Flynn during the hoax Trump Russian collusion investigation. Bash's investigation apparently went nowhere. No report was issued by U.S. Attorney John Bash. FBI Director Wray held back evidence on the Biden family. Vice President Biden was among the Obama officials who unmasked General Flynn.

General Flynn was considered a threat to the Intelligence Community because he knew his way around the ins and outs of the Intelligence Community.

Montgomery handed over to former FBI Director James Comey 47 computer hard drives of evidence that Montgomery says prove that Robert Mueller, John Brennan, and James Clapper were engaged in illegal domestic surveillance with THE HAMMER.

FBI Director Wray has never mentioned THE HAMMER or the 47 hard drives of illegal surveillance evidence that "dirty cop" former Director James Comey had in his possession.

FBI General Counsel James Baker, FBI Special Agent William Barnett, and Dennis Montgomery's Whistleblower Case

Former FBI General Counsel James Baker entered into two immunity agreements with Dennis Montgomery. Baker dispatched FBI Director James Comey's two right-hand men, Special Agents William Barnett and Walter Giardina, to Florida, along with Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis, to pick up Montgomery's 47 harddrives of evidence.

Special Agent Barnett believed that Special Counsel Robert Mueller's Russian collusion investigation was dominated by an overwhelming desire to "get Trump," according to an FBI 302 summary of a September 21, 2020 interview of Barnett, conducted by Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri Jeffrey Jensen.

After Barnett helped to retrieve Montgomery's 47 hard drives and debriefed Montgomery in December 2015, Barnett went on to join the Russia collusion investigation team and the team prosecuting General Flynn, led by Assistant U. S. Attorney Deborah Curtis. This was a stunning turn of events considering that Curtis, Barnett, and Giardina were already aware of the 'Fruit of the Poisonous Tree' information that THE HAMMER was being used to spy on General Flynn. They learned that information in the FBI Washington DC Field Office SCIF in December of 2015.

After Montgomery's evidence was verified and after Montgomery testified to Special Agents Barnett and Giardina and to Assistant U.S. Attorney Curtis while under oath and while being videotaped in the FBI Washington DC Field office inside a Sensitive Compartmented Information Facility (SCIF), Montgomery received two immunity agreements. This confirms the importance the FBI and DOJ placed on Montgomery's information regarding THE HAMMER.

Former FBI General Counsel Baker testified on October 18, 2018 before a joint congressional committee, his second day of testimony. Baker amended his first day of testimony, stating:

> Can I just — I'm turning to the bureau to describe this. So his client was an individual named Dennis Montgomery, who I believe, to the best of my recollection, he said that he had been a U. S. Government contractor and, in the course of that work, had come across evidence of unlawful surveillance by the government of Americans — and including Government officials — and wanted to give that information to the Bureau, which eventually did take place.

The U.S. government has relentlessly attempted to silence whistleblower Montgomery with lawsuits, and by invoking the State Secrets Privilege (SSP) and a Government Protective Order among other Orwellian tactics.

US Attorney John Bash's 'Investigation' Apparently Died Without Even A Whimper, Much Less A Bang

The Washington Post reported on October 13, 2020 that U.S. Attorney Bash "concluded his review without criminal charges or any public report."

The previous week, Bash had on October 5, 2020 abruptly resigned from the U.S. Justice Department and reentered private practice

Surveillance, coupled with "blackmail and leverage," has been the Obama Administration's strong arm tactic to transform America into a police state, much like the Stasi and the Nazis before them had transformed Germany into a police state.

Acting DNI Richard Grenell Declassified The List Of Obama Administration Officials Who Requested NSA Unmasking Of General Michael Flynn

Notably, Vice President Joe Biden is on the declassified list of officials who requested the unmasking of General Michael Flynn.

Other notable officials on the list are Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, CIA Director John Brennan, FBI Director James Comey, Treasury Secretary Jacob 'Jack' Lew, White House Chief of Staff Denis McDonough, Deputy Treasury Secretary Sara Raskin (wife of Rep. Jamie Raskin (D-MD), and U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Samantha Power (wife of Cass Sunstein.)

By date, the last two officials to request NSA unmasking of General Michael Flynn were Vice President Joe Biden and Treasury Secretary Jacob 'Jack' Lew on January 12, 2017.

Secretary Lew had also previously requested the NSA unmasking of General Michael Flynn on December 14, 2016.

INTRODUCTORY OVERVIEW EXCERPT PART 3 OF 3

2015: Under An Immunity Deal, DOJ And FBI Pick Up Montgomery's Hard Drive Evidence In Miami, Debrief Montgomery In Washington DC — Montgomery Provides Sworn Testimony That Obama, Brennan, And Clapper Spied On Flynn And Trump With THE HAMMER

In August 2015 FBI Director James Comey, FBI General Counsel James Baker, and DOJ Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis took possession of Montgomery's physical evidence — 47 computer hard drives of illicitly-harvested domestic surveillance data — and proceeded to bury it.

Before Montgomery turned over the hard drives, Baker and Curtis struck two limited immunity agreements with Montgomery — for production and testimony.

Montgomery flew to Miami with 53 hard drives, all individually wrapped, taped, boxed, sealed, and checked into the cargo hold of the commercial airliner Montgomery was flying aboard on nonstop service. When he arrived in Miami, there were only 47 hard drives. Six hard drives, that had been in the custody of the airline and the TSA, were missing. No determination has ever been made as to who took those six hard drives.

FBI Special Agents Walter Giardina and William Barnett, known as Director Comey's two right-hand men, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis, were dispatched to the FBI Miami Field Office in Miramar to meet Dennis Montgomery and take possession of his hard drives.

The FBI subsequently verified such evidence under the first part of Montgomery's immunity agreement.

With the FBI having verified the hard drives, the officials who took receipt of Montgomery's physical evidence in August 2015 — Curtis, Barnett, and Giardina — four months later, in December 2015, took Montgomery's sworn and videotaped testimony inside a Sensitive Compartmented Information Facility (SCIF) at the FBI's Washington D.C. Field office.

These government officials were the same bad actors involved in the coup d'état that masqueraded as Robert Mueller's hoax Trump Russian collusion investigation. Robert Mueller, James Comey, James Baker, Sally Yates, Deborah Curtis, Peter Strzok, Lisa Page, William Barnett, and Walter Giardina were involved in the breathtaking Deep State operation to overthrow a sitting U.S. president.

Baker later testified before Members of Congress that he had indeed dispatched FBI agents to pick up evidence stored on electronic media from Montgomery.

As part of his testimony in the SCIF, Montgomery provided information to the FBI and the DOJ that Obama, Brennan, and Clapper were engaged in illegal surveillance of General Flynn, General Flynn's family, Donald Trump, seventeen Donald Trump businesses, and Donald Trump's family.

The Deep State's "investigation" into Donald Trump began in November/December of 2015 — that is when the Whistleblower Tapes were first exposed and written about by "The American Report."

Knowing full well that they had taken possession illegally-harvested information concerning General Flynn and his family, Curtis, Barnett, and Giardina proceeded to prosecute General Flynn with "fruit of the poisonous tree" in what may be one of the most egregious cases of prosecutorial misconduct this nation has ever witnessed. DOJ prosecutors illegally withheld exculpatory evidence from General Flynn's attorney, Sidney Powell. These corrupt DOJ prosecutors not only committed multiple Brady violations — they also concealed and altered evidentiary documents for the sole purpose of framing Michael Flynn — a three-star general who had honorably devoted 35 years of active duty military service to his nation.

U.S. District Judge Emmet Sullivan Drags Out Flynn Case After Justice Department Motions For Dismissal

U.S. District Court Judge Emmet Sullivan appeared to appoint himself judge, jury, and prosecutor in an effort to prosecute General Flynn.

Sullivan is guilty of overreaching his mandate, and usurping powers not accorded to him, in a clear violation of the U.S Constitution's separation of powers. The three branches of government are separate but equal under our system of checks and balances. Judge Sullivan was well outside of his lane in the political prosecution of General Flynn, in what would appear to be simply another chapter in the corrupt saga that is ObamaGate.

The Obama administration, both while in and out of office, was desperate to keep General Flynn muzzled. General Flynn simply knew too much.

Despite the fact that both the defendant — General Flynn— and the prosecutor — the United States Government, represented by the Justice Department — submitted motions to U.S. District Court Judge Sullivan to dismiss the case, Judge Sullivan did not dismiss the case; rather, he appointed an amicus (friend of the court) to weigh in, in an effort to delay the Justice Department's dismissal of the Flynn case.

The executive branch reserves the right to freely decide which prosecutions to pursue and which prosecutions to drop. Sailing further into uncharted territory, Judge Sullivan has gone so far as to retain his own lawyer in Flynn's case, becoming an active litigant in the Flynn case, represented by attorney Beth Wilkinson.

General Flynn's attorney Sidney Powell offered oral arguments on behalf of General Flynn before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit on August 11, 2020, where she asked that Judge Sullivan's petition for a rehearing en banc be denied.

Powell argued that U.S. District Court Judge Emmet Sullivan exceeded his power and emphasized that General Flynn's case has already dragged on for four years and cost her client many millions of dollars.

"The District Court is not a super prosecutor" and it has lost its appearance of neutrality, Powell told the judges during the hearing.

Powell asked the Court of Appeals to restore the rule of law and to grant the DOJ's motion to dismiss the Flynn case.

Judge Sullivan's attorney Beth Wilkinson proceeded to tell the court that its en banc hearing had morphed and made it a respondent in new litigation against General Flynn under Rule 35, in a "tar baby" entrapment scheme.

Wilkinson had the audacity to make a comparison between General Flynn and al-Qaeda terrorist Abd al-Rahim al-Nashiri, the alleged mastermind of the October 2000 USS Cole bombing in Yemen.

If it were not for low standards, attorney Wilkinson would have no standards at all.

The technocracy editors at Wikipedia, in another unconscionable scheme, censored the evidence that exonerates General Michael Flynn in an attempt to mislead the American people as the nation goes into the 2020 election, according to Breitbart.

While the government contended that General Flynn had lied, it was in fact the DOJ's own prosecution team that had committed multiple violations of the law and that had repeatedly lied — both by omission and commission. Obama's "team" of DOJ prosecutors had nothing on Kafka. Their court proceedings, in true Kafkaesque fashion, violated General Flynn's Constitutional rights with complete and utter disregard for the rule of law.

The Obama Administration cabal waged a criminal campaign against General Flynn, including attempting to frame General Flynn with Logan Act violations when General Flynn had done no such thing. Peter Strzok's hand-written notes suggest that it was Vice President Joe Biden who came up with the idea of prosecuting General Flynn for Logan Act violations. General Flynn, the incoming National Security Adviser, had cut no deals or suggested any deals to Russian Ambassador Kislyak, as they well knew.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis "Walks Away" From The Department Of Justice

On September 27, 2019, "The American Report" published a report calling attention to Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis's involvement in both Michael Flynn's prosecution and Dennis Montgomery's whistleblower case. Curtis was in possession of Montgomery's evidence that included information that Brennan and Clapper had illegally harvested data regarding General Flynn and his family —"fruit of the poisonous tree" — yet, in a blatant conflict of interest, Curtis continued to prosecute General Flynn.

Deborah Curtis stepped down from her position as lead prosecutor in the Michael Flynn case and left the DOJ on September 27, 2019, abruptly ending her lengthy DOJ career only hours after "The American Report" published the article.

Curtis, Barnett, and Giardina had joined Special Counsel Robert Mueller's Russian Hoax cabal to undertake a coup d'état against a duly elected U.S. President. This was treachery. This was treason.

FBI General Counsel James Baker, testifying under oath before a joint Congressional committee, stated that he took possession of Dennis Montgomery's evidence.

Baker testified before Congress in October 2018:

Can I just — I'm turning to the Bureau to describe this. So his client was an individual named Dennis Montgomery, who I believe, to the best of my recollection, he said that he had been a U.S. Government contractor and, in the course of that work, had come across evidence of unlawful surveillance by the government of Americans — and including government officials — and wanted to give that information to the Bureau, which eventually did take place.

Baker confirmed that Montgomery had provided his FBI agents with evidence that government officials were conducting unlawful domestic surveillance of Americans, including of other government officials.

It is of utmost importance to recognize that Robert Mueller's FBI supplied the computers for THE HAMMER, according to Montgomery. Robert Mueller was deeply involved and did not want THE HAMMER exposed to the American people. At one point, Mueller's FBI raided Montgomery's Reno, Nevada home. A Federal magistrate ruled against Mueller's FBI, demanding the bureau return Montgomery's property while admonishing the FBI for submitting fraudulent search warrant affidavits.

The former government officials who were intricately involved with Dennis Montgomery and his whistleblower case and who had knowledge of the HAMMER and its repurposing for illegal domestic surveillance — John Brennan, James Clapper, James Baker, James Comey, and Robert Mueller — were put into key positions where they could and did control the narrative about THE HAMMER.

Dennis Montgomery's former business partner was onetime presidential candidate Jack Kemp who held a stake in a company called Blixware. Blixware operated THE HAMMER when it was a powerful foreign surveillance tool used to keep America safe.

Jack Kemp was the mentor to and long-time boss of former Speaker of the House Paul Ryan. Paul Ryan now sits on the board of directors of Fox Corporation, the parent company of Fox News. Paul Ryan was known to be a Never Trumper. "Among the powerful voices advising Lachlan [Murdoch] that Fox should decisively break with the president is former House speaker Paul Ryan," Vanity Fair reported.

The coup plotters were put in position to control the narrative and control all information about their attempted coup. Most of the plotters, if not all, had full knowledge of the illegal use of THE HAMMER.

- John Brennan — NBC News/MSNBC Senior National Security Analyst, Book Deal
- James Clapper — CNN National Security Analyst, Book Deal
- James Baker — Twitter Deputy General Counsel
- Lisa Page — MSNBC National Security and Legal Analyst
- Peter Strzok — Book Deal
- James Comey — Book Deal
- Andrew Weismann — NBC News/MSNBC Legal Analyst, Book Deal

According to Montgomery, former FBI General Counsel James Baker, with the sanctimonious former FBI Director James Comey, buried the computer hard drive evidence of THE HAMMER.

Conveniently for the coup plotters, Baker was recently hired as deputy general counsel of Twitter.

With his new Twitter job, Baker is in a position to potentially censor and "shadowban" social media posts about THE HAMMER and cover up Obama, Brennan, and Clapper's illegal domestic surveillance operation against General Flynn, President Trump, and the American people.

Additional Text Messages Between Strzok And Page Suggest What Else They Were Up

To The American Report also discovered that Strzok and Page first began exchanging text messages on August 21, 2015, according to text messages released by DOJ. This was just two days after Montgomery turned over the 47 computer hard drives of illegally-harvested evidence to the FBI and DOJ on August 19, 2015.

Montgomery had scheduled the handover of the 47 hard drive two weeks in advance of the meeting with the FBI and DOJ. There is every reason to believe that Strzok and Page were aware of Montgomery's scheduled handover.

This first Strzok-Page text message released by the DOJ, dated August 21, 2015 states "Hi Just got out of a meeting now to working lunch. Starting working out of hq on Mon. Not kidding. Much more to tell later of course."

"Whoa. What?!" is the response.

"Yeah, surprise to me to [too]. Taking over special. Sorry can't text now, should be able to in about an hour. Met Trisha."

Montgomery notified the FBI and DOJ ahead of time that he was bringing in the hard drives on August 19, 2015 for a handover of evidence. The evidence handover must have been considered a high priority at the FBI and DOJ, particularly as the FBI had sought to get that evidence in hand since 2006.

The DOJ's release of Strzok and Page's first recorded text message, dated August 21, 2015, reveals Strzok and Page texting about a "move to Hq" and the announcement of "taking over special" which brought a surprised and excited response of "Whoa. What?!"

Did Strzok or Page move into FBI headquarters in charge of the Montgomery Special investigation of the 47 hard drives? The 47 hard drives contained a massive amount of top-secret SAP (Special Access Program) information. Were Strzok and Page securing the SAP above-top secret classified information that Brennan and Clapper had collected? Were they disseminating it?

Three weeks later, on September 9, 2015, it was revealed in another text message between Strzok and Page, that one of them, either Strzok or Page, was briefing Clapper. The same James Clapper who had commandeered the foreign surveillance tool THE HAMMER and for whom Dennis Montgomery had worked and had turned whistleblower in an effort to expose Clapper and his co-conspirators Obama and Brennan.

"Honestly, I thought it was weird that he would let you brief clapper before he got a recent update," reads a September 9, 2015 late night Strzok-Page text message.

Still another text message in the same time frame exposes either Strzok or Page meeting "Aaron" at "Wilmer."

"Where are you meeting Aaron? Wilmer is close to Foggy Bottom, no?"

On September 10, 2015, three weeks after Montgomery turned the hard drives over to Comey's FBI, Strzok and Page exchanged a text message about a scheduled lunch meeting that day which appears to have been with Robert Mueller's long-time right hand man Aaron Zebley over at Muller's law firm WilmerHale.

Aaron Zebley was FBI Director Robert Mueller's chief of staff who followed Mueller to WilmerHale, where both Mueller and Zebley were working in September 2015, at the time of the Strzok-Page "lunch meeting" text message. "He has long been Mr. Mueller's right hand," The New York Times wrote in reference to Aaron Zebley.

Zebley is a cybersecurity expert who, in May 2017, moved from WilmerHale over to the Office of Special Counsel to help lead the hoax Trump Russian collusion investigation under Robert Mueller.

Mueller served as Special Counsel and Zebley served as Mueller's Deputy Special Counsel. Zebley was often observed sitting at Robert Mueller's side.

A key fact is that Mueller's FBI, according to Montgomery, supplied the computers for THE HAMMER. Mueller worked together with Brennan and Clapper on THE HAMMER and kept FBI agents at Fort Washington. According to Montgomery, the FBI told Brennan and the CIA that they had no charter to spy on Americans inside the United States.

Zebley previously served as FBI Director Robert Mueller's deputy chief of staff, and later, Mueller's chief of staff. Considering Mueller and Zebley's close relationship, one must ask whether Aaron Zebley also knew about THE HAMMER.

"Aaron just had to cancel lunch, so I'm flexible" stated a Strzok-Page text message around 3:00 p.m.

Court records prove that FBI Director Robert Mueller had been attempting, since 2006, to seize the cache of evidence in Montgomery's possession. Mueller's FBI raided Montgomery's home in 2006. After the raid, U.S. Magistrate Valerie Cooke ruled in Montgomery's favor and ordered the FBI to return all of Montgomery's seized property. In 2006, Aaron Zebley was Assistant United States Attorney, National Security and Terrorism Unit, at the U.S. Attorney's Office in Alexandria, Virginia.

General Flynn Was Targeted Because He Was Well-versed On President Obama's Treachery

Barack Obama considered General Michael Flynn a threat.

As an insider and as the former director of the Defense Intelligence Agency, General Flynn knew the truth about the Obama administration, its culture of corruption, and the extraordinary danger it presented to America.

General Flynn would have understood what the cabal of traitors in the DOJ and FBI were facilitating.

General Flynn not only knew the ins and outs of the Intelligence Community but was well aware of President Obama's shortcoming and that the CIA was trying to take over the DIA and the NSA. Flynn had planned to reorganize the Intelligence Community and conduct a thorough review of their expenditures and activities.

Representative Devin Nunes (R-CA) on August 13, 2020 told Maria Bartiromo of Fox Business Channel's "Mornings With Maria":

The bureaucracy in Washington D.C. and the intel apparatus had gotten way too big and become corrupt. He [General Flynn] was one of the first to point out that al-Qaeda was resurging in Iraq and eventually became ISIS. Remember, that's why Gen. Flynn was fired way back when. They for sure didn't want someone who fully understood the apparatus being in there as the top intelligence person for the president.

Barack Obama wanted to keep General Flynn muzzled so that Flynn could not fully expose that which he had already referenced on several occasions. Barack Obama wanted General Flynn silenced because:

- General Flynn knew about Hillary and Bill Clinton and their corrupt pay-to-play money laundering schemes;
- General Flynn knew about Anthony Weiner's laptop computer;
- General Flynn knew the inside information on the Iran nuclear deal;
- General Flynn knew about Soleimani's involvement in those attacks;
- General Flynn knew about the transfer of U.S. weapons systems to U.S. adversaries;
- General Flynn knew about Skolkovo — Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton's effort to replicating Silicon Valley just outside of Moscow, an act of treachery;
- General Flynn knew that Iran had been directly responsible for the killing and maiming of thousands of American troops in Iraq with IEDs and explosively formed penetrators (EFPs);
- General Flynn knew that Osama Bin Laden had been working with Iran;
- General Flynn, as the Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), was the top military intelligence officer of his generation — battled-hardened from multiple combat tours in the Middle East — and as such posed a threat to Barack Obama's false narratives and his legacy.

NSA Whistleblowers Binney And Wiebe Stake Their Reputations On Dennis Montgomery

William Binney and J. Kirk Wiebe are well-known NSA whistleblowers. Binney, a Russia expert, spent over 30 years at the agency and retired in 2001 as Technical Director of World Geopolitical and Military Analysis and Reporting. Wiebe retired in 2001 as a senior analyst.

Both Binney and Wiebe came forward and stated on the Operation Freedom program, not only once, but on two separate occasions, that they stake their reputations on Dennis Montgomery as a credible whistleblower.

They not only stated it on two different shows — but also placed that statement into a written statement.

William Binney and Kirk Wiebe both stated that they have spoken directly to CIA whistleblower Dennis Montgomery.

Binney's work at the NSA is the subject of the 2015 documentary "A Good American." The film includes interviews with Kirk Wiebe as well.

In June 2019, Dr. Dave Janda interviewed Binney and Wiebe on his program "Operation Freedom." During the interview, Binney, Wiebe, and Janda discussed Dennis Montgomery and THE HAMMER. Both NSA whistleblowers William Binney and Kirk Wiebe unequivocally stated that they stand with CIA whistleblower Dennis Montgomery. They presented a written statement as confirmation.

In 2014, Maricopa County, Arizona Sheriff's Office Cold Case Posse "detective" Michael Zullo approached William Binney, Kirk Wiebe, and Thomas Drake to review materials from Dennis Montgomery. Unfortunately, Zullo provided only partial information to Binney, Wiebe, and Drake, and omitted crucial information that Zullo had recently accompanied Montgomery during a visit to the Washington, D.C. office of U.S. District Judge Royce C. Lamberth, former presiding judge of the secret FISA court.

Zullo witnessed Judge Lamberth confirm Montgomery's TS/SCI security clearance with access to Special Access Programs (SAP). SAP is an above-top-secret clearance not widely known before Hillary Clinton's email scandal. SAP information is thought to include the location of overseas U.S. intelligence assets and the location of U.S. missile silos.

Zullo also witnessed Judge Lamberth recognizing the SAP information that Montgomery presented in a cache of documents that Montgomery had brought with him, as that SAP information had previously come before Judge Lamberth as head of the FISA Court. Montgomery pondered how it was that Michael Zullo and Montgomery's attorney Larry Klayman were able to remain in the room without holding that TS/SCI security clearance (with access to SAP) while top-secret information was being discussed.

Zullo somehow "forgot" to mention all of this to Binney, Wiebe, and Drake as Zullo sought a letter from them stating that Montgomery was a fraud. Zullo, attempting to color the NSA experts' perception of Montgomery, led them to believe that Montgomery was a drunk and a gambler. Zullo also presented the three NSA whistleblowers with hard drives that held encrypted data in the "white space" that none of the NSA experts (not Binney, Wiebe, or Drake) could see without a decryption key. Zullo however presented the hard drives as though the information could be readily viewed. Perhaps Zullo was hoping that Binney could break through the encryption code, as William Binney is a world renowned encryption expert.

Montgomery provided information to Zullo to present to Binney, Wiebe and Drake that would have signaled to them the type of information that Montgomery held. Zullo removed the names, account numbers, and the passwords from the documents of the personal financial banking statements of top executives from Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan that Zullo then presented to Binney, Wiebe and Drake. This was a stunning cache of personal documents from the very top of the financial industry, though with the names, account numbers, and passwords now omitted by Zullo from these documents they no longer carried the same significance.

If Obama, Brennan, and Clapper were using THE HAMMER to wiretap their political enemies, one can only imagine what they were doing with the bank account numbers and passwords of senior executives at J.P. Morgan and Goldman Sachs.

Zullo Told "The American Report" He Was Taking Directions From Former CIA Director James Woolsey, Accused Fanning And Jones Of Being "Russian Agents"

While Zullo told these reporters on two occasions that he was taking directions from former CIA Director James Woolsey, he was also spreading malicious rumours that Fanning and Jones were "Russian agents." Sound familiar?

Zullo also maintained that he was never on a three-way conference call with Fanning and Jones on the evening of December 15, 2016 because he was engaged with an important press conference and the celebratory dinner that followed.

Phone records, however, prove that "Detective" Mike Zullo was not truthful. Those phone records indicate that Zullo was patched into the conference call on December 15, 2017 at 10:28 pm Phoenix time (12:28 am Eastern Time, December 16, 2017) that lasted 53 minutes. Zullo's phone number has been redacted to protect his privacy.

The same man that withheld the truth from Binney, Wiebe, and Drake then attempted to frame these reporters as Russian agents and liars. Why? What is Zullo attempting to hide and why does he attempt to sell his false narratives?

The real question remains: who exactly is Michael Zullo and for whom, or for what government or intelligence agency, does Michael Zullo really work? Does Zullo work for a foreign government or a foreign intelligence agency?

The Whistleblower Tapes would not exist if Zullo had not been illegally recording Dennis Montgomery and Montgomery's former business partner Tim Blixseth in an operation that Montgomery believes was an attempt to entrap Montgomery in a violation of the State Secrets Privilege and Government Protective Order that had been invoked upon him and that would have landed Montgomery in prison for life on charges of Treason in violation of the Espionage Act.

"It's Probably Treason": President Trump Says "I Think It's The Political Crime Of The Century"; "They Have Been Caught Red-Handed"

During an August 2020 White House press conference, President Trump called the Obama administration's illegal spying on the Trump campaign and the Trump administration "the political crime of the century." "They have been caught red-handed" and "it's probably treason" the president added.

Under two immunity agreements, Montgomery eventually handed over the 47 computer hard drives. The government now had back in its hands proof that Brennan and Clapper had used THE HAMMER to illicitly-harvest surveillance data from Supreme Court justices, General Flynn, and Donald Trump.

Since 2006, the FBI and the CIA had desperately wanted to get into their hands Montgomery's proof of Brennan, and Clapper's illegal domestic surveillance programs. FBI Director Mueller had provided the computers for THE HAMMER.

After the DOJ and the FBI took possession of Montgomery's 47 hard drives, however, they buried that evidence and the proof that the Obama Administration, Brennan and Clapper were guilty of the most egregious acts of treason this nation has ever witnessed.

CIA Director Brennan Buried High-Quality Intelligence That Proved That Russia Wanted Hillary To Win; Brennan Then Lied And Claimed Russia Wanted Trump To Win

In an April 2020 Fox News opinion piece, former Trump National Security Council Chief of Staff Fred Fleitz revealed that House Intelligence Committee staff members told him that John "Brennan suppressed high-quality intelligence suggesting that Putin actually wanted the more predictable and malleable Clinton to win the 2016 election." Fleitz further stated that Brennan replaced that high-quality intelligence with "low-quality intelligence that failed to meet intelligence community standards to support the political claim that Russian officials wanted Trump to win."

Brennan and Clapper knew it was a hoax all along.

After two years, it was finally leaked from Clapper's own secret House Intelligence Committee testimony that Clapper knew all along that there was no evidence that Donald Trump colluded with the Russians.

Clapper, in testimony before the House Intelligence Committee, stated "I never saw any direct empirical evidence that the Trump campaign or someone in it was plotting [or] conspiring with the Russians to meddle with the election."

Acting Director Of National Intelligence Richard Grenell On Flynn – Kislyak Wiretap: 'It Wasn't Our Product'; Valerie Jarrett's Body Language Betrays Her Fear When Bartiromo Mentions Jail; Jarrett Refuses To Answer Question "Did Obama Direct Any Of This?" But Clapper Did Expose Obama

On May 22, 2020, Acting Director of National Intelligence Richard Grenell, responding to a Tweet about declassifying the transcripts of phone calls between General Flynn and Russian Ambassador Kislyak, Tweeted "The IC [Intelligence Community] doesn't have all the transcripts/summaries… It wasn't our product."

If it wasn't a product of the 17 intelligence agencies that DNI Grenell oversaw, then whose product was it?

Was it THE HAMMER?

On July 28, 2020, Maria Bartiromo of Fox News Business Sunday Morning Futures asked Valerie Jarrett, the Iranian-born former senior adviser to President Obama, tough questions about President Obama's involvement in spying on General Flynn and the Trump campaign:

MARIA BARTIROMO:

I am a patriot and do not want to see people in positions of power put their finger on the scale and make up a story that there is collusion with a foreign power when there is absolutely no evidence of that …

… I want to make sure that we do not have the powers in government spying on political campaigns because the other political campaign paid for it. We know that Hillary Clinton paid for the dossier. So, this was an election year. You have got one campaign paying for dirt on another campaign and you have got the amazing intelligence agencies of our government weaponized.

So that is what has taken place here. You are saying you knew nothing about it? You were President Obama's right hand. And a lot of people wonder how much President Obama directed this.

So, I ask you, did President Obama direct any of this?

VALERIE JARRET:

That's not how it works. That's not how our investigations work. We leave that to the intelligence community to bring forward information and the dossier, I would imagine, would be one piece of a bigger puzzle.

When Bartiromo says "people are going to jail," Jarrett's body language notably stiffened, suggesting her great discomfort with the mention of the word "jail." Jarrett swallowed hard and turned her head away.

Jarrett refused to answer the question "did President Obama direct any of this?"

But former DNI James Clapper did weigh in and he exposed Obama. Clapper likely exposed Obama in an attempt to save himself.

Valerie Jarrett claims the information came from the U.S. intelligence community. Richard Grenell, however, as Acting DNI, said no, "it's not our product."

Elizabeth MacDonald Interview With Former Acting DNI Richard Grenell

During an August 6, 2020 Fox Business Channel interview with Elizabeth MacDonald, former Acting Director of National Intelligence Richard Grenell said that Vice President Biden requested the unmasking of Flynn in January 2017. Someone then leaked that information in an effort to frame General Flynn. Leaking classified information is a felony, even if it is phony.

Acting Attorney General Sally Yates said she was confused as she had no information as to where President Obama obtained surveillance data about the Flynn-Kislyak phone calls. In her position, Yates certainly would have known.

Grenell told Fox Business Channel's MacDonald:

Why, in January of 2017, weeks before President Trump takes over as president and weeks before the inauguration, did Vice President Joe Biden request an unmasking of the Russian Flynn phone call? All of this is known. He knew exactly who that was before he even asked for the unmasking. But he did it anyway. And then it was leaked to the media.

"This unmasking that I declassified was done during the transition, when we should have had a peaceful transition of power. Instead we had a strategy to bring down the Trump administration before they even started" Grenell told MacDonald.

Clapper: "If It Weren't For President Obama, We Might Not Have Done The Intelligence Community Assessment That We Did"

General Clapper was very clear when he shrewdly uncloaked Barack Obama, telling CNN's Anderson Cooper that President Obama ordered the Intelligence Community Assessment. James Clapper told CNN's Anderson Cooper in July 2018:

If it weren't for President Obama, we might not have done the intelligence community assessment that we did, that set up a whole sequence of events which are still unfolding today, notably, Special Counsel Mueller's investigation. President Obama is responsible for that. It was he who tasked us to do that intelligence community assessment in the first place.

General Clapper told CNN's Anderson Cooper that President Obama not only put in place a sequence of events that gave us Special Counsel Robert Mueller, but also tasked the Intelligence Community Assessment.

Barack Obama's eleven-year charade of plausible deniability is finally over.

General Clapper was very clear when he cleverly exposed Barack Obama, as if in a game of "Clue."

If Barack Obama tasked the Intelligence Community Assessment, and, as former Acting DNI Richard Grenell says, "it wasn't our product," then, the clues fell into place. It is Barack Obama, alone in the library — with THE HAMMER.

Admiral And General Expose THE HAMMER And The Whistleblower Tapes Over America's Airwaves, Prompting FBI Director Comey To Launch The Hoax Trump Russian Collusion Investigation The Very Next Morning

General McInerney and Admiral Lyons, both military men of sterling reputation, brought The American Report's March 17, 2017 exposé titled "Whistleblower Tapes: Trump Wiretapped 'A Zillion Times' By 'The Hammer,' Brennan's and Clapper's Secret Computer System"' to America's airwaves on Sunday, March 19, 2017 during Dr. Dave Janda's program Operation Freedom on WAAM 1600, a terrestrial radio station.

A West Point graduate and former Vietnam War Air Force pilot, General McInerney served as the U.S. Air Force Assistant Vice Chief of Staff, the third-highest ranking air force officer. General McInerney flew over 400 combat missions and flew U.S. military reconnaissance missions during the Cuban Missile Crisis, served as the military assistant to the advisor to the Secretary of Defense on NATO affairs, and was the Commander of the Alaskan Air Command, Alaskan NORAD Region, and the 11th Air Force. At the Pentagon, General McInerney was responsible for U.S. nuclear weapons.

General McInerney is a legendary American military hero and warrior who has dedicated his life and his many talents to defending America.

General McInerney was deeply disturbed about President Obama's, Brennan's, and Clapper's abuse of THE HAMMER super surveillance system.

After learning about THE HAMMER, General McInerney stated during that March 19, 2017 radio interview:

This is so far greater than Watergate. Watergate was just nothing compared to Hammer. It is very important that this be looked at right now.

This is a very serious thing. Everything about the Russians stealing the election is tactical deception.

Two years later, during the July 7, 2019 Operation Freedom broadcast, Dave Janda asked General McInerney, "do you stand behind what you said [about THE HAMMER] on March 19, 2017?"

"Absolutely Dave. Even more so. I mean, the fact is, that was over two years ago, two and a half years ago now, almost," General McInerney responded to Janda. "I stand by it even more so having reviewed it just yesterday and what I said on the 19th of March 2017, that was absolutely spot on."

During a July 19, 2020 appearance on Operation Freedom, General McInerney, referring to his original March 19, 2017 interview about THE HAMMER, stated:

What we didn't know on that date in March 2017 was that's what was presented to President Obama on the 5th of January [2017] just before he left office when they opened the investigation and he directed the FBI to look into and the reason why the FBI sent two people over to interview General Flynn. And that information on the Kislyak memo came from HAMMER. It wasn't a normal NSA document.

And that's why Sally Yates wasn't aware of it until the president mentioned it and said put the appropriate people. That's a dog whistle to put our special team on. And so, Biden was sitting in that meeting. Biden. Biden has got Russian collusion all over him along with President Obama.

This could not have happened unless Obama was letting it happen. So that's why we've got to get John Durham's grand juries going and going on in a hurry, so the American people know how corrupt the entire Democratic party is, but also the media…

By this point in time, Fanning and Jones of "The American Report" had exposed a plethora of additional information about THE HAMMER.

Janda was referencing another exposé from "The American Report" that had revealed that Strzok and Page exchanged a cryptic text message minutes after General McInerney's radio interview, followed by a second text message that specifically mentioned "Montgomery."

Janda stated:

And they are panicked and desperate Tom that the information [about THE HAMMER] not get out. In fact, that was evident on that March 19, 2017 interview we did. It came out when the Inspector General from the Department of Justice Michael Horowitz released the text messages between Strzok and Page. Right after our interview, Tom, Strzok and Page were texting about it, and they were not happy about the fact that you brought this out with the support of Admiral Lyons.

General McInerney responded:

…Correct. In fact, they [Strzok and Page] were very, very concerned about it [THE HAMMER] and took certain actions to try to remediate the problem so the word didn't get out. And you notice, the mainstream media. How much have they talked about THE HAMMER? How many articles have you seen in the Washington Post and the New York Times about THE HAMMER? None.

General McInerney and Dave Janda were reporting on The American Report's follow-up exposé "Coup D'état: DOJ, FBI Officials On Mueller's Russia Team In Cover Up Of Mueller's, Clapper's, And Brennan's Surveillance 'HAMMER' That Spied On Trump, Strzok-page Text Show," published on March 30, 2019.

Now that a four-star U.S. Navy admiral and Lieutenant General Thomas McInerney (Ret.), a Fox News military analyst, had weighed in, THE HAMMER story had every likelihood of being widely exposed to the American people.

And that was a problem for the Deep State.

General McInerney's admonition regarding the false narrative that Russia was stealing the election for Donald Trump has been proven true. It was all a hoax. It was a sham. The $40 million-dollar Russian Collusion delusion was tactical deception. Not surprisingly, General McInerney was, as he always is, spot on.

The contents of The Whistleblower Tapes, audio recordings that initially exposed THE HAMMER, were never supposed to have been made public or known to the American people.

The Whistleblower Tapes emerged from the courtroom of U.S. District Court Judge G. Murray Snow. It is not clear who exactly released The Whistleblower Tapes. That fact remains a mystery. Some claim that the ACLU released the audio tapes. Montgomery, however, says that he spoke with the ACLU's attorney and that she told him that the ACLU did not release the tapes.

General McInerney, like Admiral Lyons, believed that the Democrats' Russian collusion hoax was tactical deception to avoid exposing THE HAMMER. The information revealed on The Whistleblower Tapes was, at best, disturbing.

On December 20, 2015, “The American Report” published its exclusive list of nine “bullet points” summarizing the contents of the Whistleblower Tapes:

(1) Trump has been wiretapped a “zillion times”;

(2) “Al Jazeera America is a CIA operation”;

(3) “THE HAMMER” is a secret supercomputer system;

(4) “THE HAMMER” is wiretapping the FISA Court;

(5) THE HAMMER has the Supreme Court under illegal surveillance including and, most particularly. Chief Justice John Roberts (Brennan and Clapper also had Justice Scalia under surveillance with THE HAMMER);

(6) Lockheed Martin’s supercomputers collated packets of illegally-collected data about Americans that had been harvested by THE HAMMER;

(7) Brennan and Clapper ran THE HAMMER computer system out of a secret Fort Washington, Maryland facility beginning on February 3, 2009, after President Barack Obama took office;

(8) Florida voter registration disks were removed, and new disks inserted by Brennan and Clapper via THE HAMMER supercomputer system, whereby they stole the Florida election via redistricting;

(9) Using THE HAMMER, Brennan and Clapper took possession of cryptokeys in order to access secure banking systems; and

(10) Lieutenant Quarles Harris, Jr, who had worked for John Brennan at the CIA and at Brennan’s private intelligence company The Analysis Corporation, accessed the travel files of Barack Obama, Hillary Clinton and John McCain; Harris was murdered the night before he was scheduled to testify to federal investigators;

Not only did “The American Report” have multiple military sources confirm the existence of the foreign surveillance tool THE HAMMER, but Admiral Lyons, as a long-time military insider, had the information on THE HAMMER confirmed separately to him through his own various military intelligence sources.

As Soon As The DOJ Released ‘Lost’ Strzok-page Text Messages, The American Report Assembled Timelines Connecting The Hammer To Mueller’s Hoax Trump Russian Collusion ‘Investigation’

A full year after General McInerney and Admiral Lyons brought The American Report’s story about THE HAMMER to Operation Freedom, The Department of Justice released newly-recovered text messages exchanged between Peter Strzok and Lisa Page.

Before those text messages were “recovered,” they “were believed to be missing due to a technological failure on the part of FBI-issued cell phones,” the Daily Caller reported.

And lo and behold, The American Report discovered that Strzok and Page, minutes after General McInerney’s Sunday, March 19, 2017 live radio interview on Dr. Janda’s Operation Freedom during which General McInerney presented The American Report’s exposé on THE HAMMER, had exchanged a cryptic, coded, text message, followed by a second Strzok-Page text message that specifically mentioned Dennis Montgomery — the very individual whom the highly-regarded General McInerney had just been discussing on America's airwaves.

On that evening of Sunday, March 19, 2017, several hours after General McInerney concluded his radio interview, Strzok and Page exchanged the following text message:

"I'm not going to respond to the whole group. The Klayman/Montgomery stuff in the email Jim just sent is utter BS. Best to say nothing and brief later if necessary."

"Jim" may be a reference to FBI General Counsel James Baker or to FBI Director James Comey, both of whom had been involved with the Dennis Montgomery immunity agreements, although there is no confirmation on who exactly the "Jim" is to whom Strzok and Page are referring.

The American Report's timeline proved that Strzok and Page were texting about Dennis Montgomery on that very same Sunday night that General McInerney was on air discussing Dennis Montgomery and THE HAMMER. Dennis Montgomery and THE HAMMER are not common topics of discussion on conservative talk shows — or on any talk shows.

The American people now knew, from a U.S. military officer of sterling character, that Obama, Brennan, Clapper, and Comey had stolen THE HAMMER and were utilizing it for illegal surveillance.

Compared to these guys, Richard Nixon was a piker.

The Russian Collusion Hoax Is Born

The very next morning after General McInerney brought The American Report's explosive report on THE HAMMER to America's airwaves, the Trump Russian collusion hoax was born.

On Monday morning, March 20, 2017, FBI Director James Comey announced the Trump Russian collusion "investigation" before Congress and the American people.

The American Report exposed that less than 24 hours after General McInerney's stunning radio interview, FBI Director James Comey launched the hoax Trump Russian collusion investigation — assigning none other than Deputy Director of the FBI Counterintelligence Division Peter Strzok to lead that investigation.

This was the same Peter Strzok who had been in charge of the Hillary Clinton email "investigation."

It was also the same Peter Strzok who "investigated" the DNC "Russian hack." The "hack" that former NSA Technical Director William Binney says never happened because internet speed and bandwidth limitations made it technically impossible. Binney and his international team of surveillance experts confirmed the impossibility of this through a series of tests.

And, it was the same Peter Strzok who, responding to a text message from Lisa Page that stated Trump is "not ever going to become president, right? Right?!" Strzok texted Page back "No. No he won't. We'll stop it."

The same Peter Strzok, whose supposed paramour Lisa Page texted him shortly after the 2016 election, "Bought all the president's men. Figure I needed to brush up on watergate."

This is evidence of premeditation.

The was also the same Peter Strzok and the same Lisa Page who changed the FBI form 302 summary of the FBI's ambush interview of General Flynn in order to frame General Flynn and to continue their illegal prosecution of the innocent three-star general.

Mueller's mobsters were threatening to throw the full force of law at General Flynn's son.

They were desperate to take down General Flynn in order to get to President Trump.

Director Comey's announcement that the FBI was investigating whether President Trump had connections to the Kremlin, issued less than 24 hours after the conclusion of General McInerney's radio interview, proved that Admiral Lyons and General McInerney, with information from Fanning and Jones of The American Report, were right on target — THE HAMMER is the key to the coup.

As the FBI used to say, "There are no coincidences."

They had stolen the keys to the kingdom, and they wanted to keep their weapon.

Strzok and Page were aware of, and texting about, Dennis Montgomery. Both Strzok and Page were intimately involved with the Russian Collusion Hoax. Both Strzok and Page were key participants in the coup d'état — a coup d'état against a duly-elected United States president. This act of treason had never been seen before in America.

Regardless of whether Strzok and Page had Iranian family members or grew up in Iran, their oath as public servants was to the United States Constitution. The actions of Strzok and Page were the actions of an enemy.

In An Act Of Treason And Sedition, The FBI And DOJ Buried Evidence Of Obama, Brennan, And Clapper's Illegal Use Of THE HAMMER For Domestic Spying

Clearly, Admiral Lyons and General McInerney had reason to be disturbed by President Obama's actions with THE HAMMER. The complicit and corrupt Mockingbird mainstream media will not tell you about THE HAMMER, the super surveillance system that American communists inside the Obama administration weaponized to fully and finally extinguish "the shining city on the hill" that is America.

The Obama administration utilized THE HAMMER to dismantle America's NATO allies. The mainstream media will not tell you that Obama, Brennan, and Clapper worked assiduously to enable Russia, China, and Iran to defeat the United States of America, her military, her people, and her NATO allies. The mainstream media has provided an invaluable service, unfortunately, not to the American people. Rather, the mainstream media's reporting constitutes enemy action — the mainstream media lies.

For the first time since 1948, President Obama in 2012 authorized the U.S. government to unleash propaganda against the American people that was previously restricted to dissemination to foreign countries. The Smith-Mundt Act of 1948 prohibited the U.S. government from brainwashing the American People. President Obama quietly signed the Smith-Mundt Modernization Act (SMMA), buried inside the 2012 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA), effectively repealing the Smith-Mundt Act while allowing the Obama administration to run Soviet-style propaganda operations inside the United States.

Not very American.

The Smith-Mundt Modernization Act (SMMA) was co-sponsored by Congressman Mac Thornberry (R-TX). This is the same Mac Thornberry who, in 2018, dismantled the Congressional EMP Commission, which left America wide open to an EMP (electromagnetic pulse) attack.

"THE HAMMER is the Key to the Coup" is a summary of a multi-year investigation by national security journalists Mary Fanning and Alan Jones of The American Report into the supercomputer surveillance system known as THE HAMMER.

INTRODUCTORY OVERVIEW EXCERPT PART 1 OF 3

During his last days on earth, U.S. Navy Admiral James A. "Ace" Lyons (Ret.), former commander of the U.S. Navy Pacific Fleet, seemed less concerned about dying than about stopping the coup d'état against President Trump.

As Admiral Lyons lay on his deathbed, he reached over to his longtime and trusted friend and fellow cold warrior U.S. Air Force Lieutenant General Thomas McInerney (Ret.) and said: "Tom, THE HAMMER is the key to the coup."

Admiral Lyons, who, as commander of the U.S. Navy Pacific Fleet, led the largest military command in the world, spoke those words to General McInerney one final time as General McInerney sat beside his old friend on his last day.

Admiral Lyons was certain that the Deep State had launched the hoax Russian collusion coup against President Trump in order to cover up the Obama administration's criminal domestic surveillance operation THE HAMMER.

The CIA's charter prohibits the intelligence agency from spying on the American people. But that did not stop President Obama, John Brennan, and James Clapper from doing just that.

President Obama, John Brennan, and James Clapper commandeered a powerful foreign surveillance tool known as THE HAMMER in order to illegally spy on the American people, according to CIA contractor-turned-whistleblower Dennis L. Montgomery. These co-conspirators illicitly turned THE HAMMER against the American people. Obama, Brennan, and Clapper illegally harvested massive amounts of domestic surveillance data, Montgomery stated.

Career CIA officer and admitted Communist Party of the United States (CPUSA) supporter John Brennan was President Obama's Homeland Security White House Adviser and, subsequently, President Obama's CIA Director in

U.S. Air Force Lieutenant General James Clapper (Ret.) was President Obama's Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence. In 2010, Clapper became President Obama's Director of National Intelligence (DNI).

The illegal domestic surveillance operation conducted by President Obama, Clapper, and Brennan constituted a complete repudiation of the U.S. Constitution.

Shortly before the 2008 presidential election, Barack Obama promised his followers "we are five days away from fundamentally transforming the United States of America." Candidate Obama asked his supporters to fight with him, promising to "change this country and to change the world" — communist code-language for Barack Obama's long-term objective of turning the United States into Soviet America, just as the Bolshevik revolutionaries of 1917 transformed Russia into the communist Soviet Union.

Both John Brennan and Barack Obama have proven longtime communist affiliations that directly tie to known Soviet spies. Barack Obama has deep connections to the Soviet Silvermaster spy ring, as did Barack Obama's long-time mentor, Communist Party of the United States (CPUSA) member #47544 Frank Marshall Davis. Davis, a suspected KGB spy, was listed on the FBI's classified Security Index. Frank Marshall Davis proclaimed that his two most-admired leaders were none other than Hitler and Stalin.

Josef Stalin famously said: "I consider it completely unimportant who in the party will vote, or how; but what is extraordinarily important is this — who will count the votes, and how."

Obama was stealing elections via a powerful exploit known as "SCORECARD," an application that runs on THE HAMMER supercomputer system in order to steal elections. This is just one of the things Obama did with Brennan and Clapper, according to CIA contractor-turned whistleblower Montgomery.

In the 1976 presidential election, Brennan voted for CPUSA General Secretary Gus Hall (born Arvo Kustaa Halberg), a Stalinist who studied in the Soviet Union at the International Lenin School in Moscow. The U.S. government convicted Hall of "conspiracy to teach and advocate the overthrow of the U.S. government by force and violence" and threw him in Leavenworth Federal Penitentiary for over five years.

John Brennan's grandfather was a "supporter" and "affiliate" of the Soviet-backed terrorist organization the Irish Republican Army (IRA), according to The New York Times Magazine. KGB chairman Yuri Andropov authorized weapons shipments to the IRA in the 1970s. IRA troops trained inside the Soviet Union. There is no question that John Brennan comes from a long line of communists connected to the Soviet Union and Russia.

This is the same John Brennan who tried to frame General Michael Flynn and Donald Trump as supposed "Russian agents" in a now-proven hoax conspiracy theory. Communists often attempt to mirror their own criminal actions onto others.

FBI Director James Comey told New York Magazine that "I'd moved from Communist to whatever I am now. I'm not even sure how to characterize myself politically. Maybe at some point, I'll have to figure it out."

CIA Contractor-Turned Whistleblower Dennis Montgomery: Obama, Brennan, And Clapper Commandeered THE HAMMER To Illegally Harvest Massive Amounts Of Domestic Surveillance Data On Donald Trump, General Flynn, And The American People

As a CIA contractor, Montgomery spent years working directly for Brennan and Clapper before becoming a whistleblower in 2015, when he handed over to the DOJ and the FBI 47 computer hard drives of proof of Obama, Brennan, and Clapper's illegal domestic surveillance operation.

Starting in 2003, Montgomery designed and built the powerful secret foreign surveillance tool THE HAMMER in order to keep America safe after 9/11.

Generally, the Bush administration limited the use of THE HAMMER to foreign surveillance. Brennan, who worked at the CIA under Bush, was well aware of THE HAMMER. As soon as the Obama administration took power, Brennan and Clapper commandeered THE HAMMER and moved the supercomputer system to Fort Washington, Maryland on February 3, 2009, where they transformed THE HAMMER into an illegal domestic surveillance system and unleashed it against America.

Multiple military sources told "The American Report" that THE HAMMER worked and served as an invaluable tool in protecting America from terrorists and protecting U.S. troops on the battlefield. Those military sources emphasized to The American Report that THE HAMMER saved American lives.

Those military sources also told "The American Report" that "THE HAMMER" features multiple echelons of safeguards and sign-offs to prevent intelligence personnel, up to and including the President of the United States, from using the system for unlawful domestic surveillance.

THE HAMMER is the supercomputer system, the hardware, the exploit-throwing system or simply the framework. HAMR is a collection of exploits, applications that work off of the HAMMER framework. Montgomery designed exploits such as WILDTURKEY and MEDUSA that work in conjunction with THE HAMMER. WikiLeaks confirmed the existence of HAMMER in its CIA Vault 7 document drop on March 7, 2017, confirming "The American Report's" previous assertions.

With THE HAMMER, Obama, Brennan, and Clapper implemented a Stasi-style police state in America, turning the supercomputer system against the American people rather than targeting the terrorists and America's foreign adversaries for which THE HAMMER had been designed to target. Multiple influence operations utilize information illegally harvested by THE HAMMER in order to achieve their objectives.

Brennan, Clapper, and Obama used THE HAMMER to spy on U.S. Supreme Court justices, (including Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts, who ruled in favor of the Affordable Care Act, and now-deceased Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia), FISA Court judges (including one-time Presiding FISA Court Judge Reggie Walton), 156 other Article III federal judges, over one hundred Members of Congress, business leaders, journalists, law firms, U.S. military officers, and defense contractors, according to Montgomery.

Most particularly, Brennan, Clapper, and Obama focused THE HAMMER on Lieutenant General Michael Flynn and Donald J. Trump.

The CIA feared Donald Trump and General Flynn, according to Montgomery. Both Donald Trump and General Flynn understood the existential threat that the Obama administration and communism presented to the United States.

After former Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) Director General Flynn called out President Obama's "willful decision" to ship weapons to "Syrian Rebels" that ISIS and al-Qaeda terrorists used to carry out a genocide of Christians across the Middle East, President Obama developed a particular dislike for General Flynn.

Obama, Brennan, and Clapper were spying on General Flynn while he was the director of the DIA, the United States' highest-ranking military intelligence officer, according to Montgomery.

The CIA was attempting to take power over the NSA and the DIA. However, it is worth noting again that under the CIA's charter, it is illegal for the CIA to spy on Americans inside the United States.

For several years during the "Trump Russian Collusion" conspiracy theory hysteria, the media was reluctant to admit that the Obama administration had been caught spying on Donald Trump. Eventually, forced to face that inconvenient fact, the media then proceeded to control the narrative by insisting that Obama spied on Trump by unmasking NSA surveillance data rather than spying on Trump with THE HAMMER, illegally commandeered by Obama, Brennan, and Clapper. The mainstream media has never once mentioned THE HAMMER.

On August 17, 2018, John Brennan, by then an MSNBC national security and intelligence analyst, told Rachel Maddow "we put together a Fusion Center at CIA that brought NSA and FBI officers together with CIA to make sure that those proverbial dots would be connected."

Brennan's fantastical and criminal 'Fusion Center' scheme is nothing other than cover for his and the CIA's criminal domestic spying operations. Brennan does not have the right to piggyback on the FBI and the NSA's charters in order to circumvent the CIA's charter.

During an August 4, 2020 interview with Fox Business Channel's Elizabeth MacDonald, General Flynn's attorney Sidney Powell called out Brennan's Fusion Center and THE HAMMER. Sidney Powell mentioned THE HAMMER twice on Fox Business Channel.

Montgomery was a contractor for the CIA. Montgomery says that he did not go to the NSA for information, though on occasion, the NSA did come to him.

It is imperative to understand what exactly Obama, Brennan, and Clapper were doing with all of this information collected by THE HAMMER. Were they simply enriching themselves, blackmailing others, or sharing it with America's adversaries?

During the August 5, 2020 Senate Judiciary Committee hearing with former Deputy Attorney General Sally Yates, Senator Ted Cruz (R-TX) asked Yates whether "any other political opponents of Barack Obama" who were 2016 presidential candidates were spied upon. Cruz then directly asked Sally Yates whether he himself was being spied upon. Yates testified that no other candidates had been under surveillance.

The truthful answer to Senator Cruz's question as to whether he himself was spied upon by the Obama administration is yes, according to Montgomery.

Montgomery: Co-Conspirators Obama, Brennan, And Clapper Used THE HAMMER To Spy On Obama's Political Adversaries For 'blackmail And Leverage,' To Spy On American Synagogues And Churches In Order To Harvest The Personal Data Of Their Congregants, And To Steal Intellectual Property From American Businesses And Law Firms

The co-conspirators Obama, Brennan, and Clapper were spying on anyone they deemed to be a political adversary or who held confidential information that could be of value. They utilized THE HAMMER for the purpose of "blackmail and leverage," Montgomery stated.

They accessed American law firms to steal intellectual property and financial securities information from those law firms and their clients' businesses, including defense contractors, according to Montgomery.

Brennan, and Clapper penetrated American companies, including oil production companies.

They penetrated Jewish synagogues and Christian churches across America, collecting the names and personal data of their congregants.

They penetrated the secretary of state offices across the United States.

They penetrated abortion clinics. They penetrated psychiatric facilities and mental health hospitals.

They penetrated the businesses of American farmers in Iowa.

They penetrated companies involved in nuclear energy.

They penetrated biosafety level four (BSL-4) laboratories.

They even penetrated the Federal Reserve.

Hitler and Stalin could only have dreamed of such a surveillance system.

Obama, Brennan, And Clapper Stole The Keys To The Kingdom

Obama, Brennan, and Clapper stole the keys to the kingdom in order to redistribute and cripple America. They succeeded in turning America into a Soviet-style totalitarian police state — or so they thought.

Computer expert Montgomery had designed and built The HAMMER in order to protect America from foreign threats, not to transform America into the totalitarian police state of which Barack Obama dreamed.

In 2013, Montgomery notified 17 federal agencies that the Obama administration was conducting illegal domestic surveillance. Montgomery went so far as to directly fax President Obama and Vice President Joe Biden in their respective offices. Montgomery alerted Obama and Biden that the illegal domestic surveillance was ongoing — but both Obama and Biden were already well aware of the illegal use of THE HAMMER.

President Obama had direct access to THE HAMMER, at will, via an encrypted VPN connection, according to Montgomery.

CIA whistleblower Montgomery attempted to stop Obama, Brennan, and Clapper's treasonous use of THE HAMMER.

What were they looking for? What information did they seek? What were Barack Obama, John Brennan, and James Clapper doing with all of that illegally-harvested information on Obama's political enemies?

Obama, Brennan, and Clapper were gathering America's corporate intellectual property and financial secrets, personal data harvested from American synagogues and churches, weapon system research and development secrets from major U.S. defense contractors, and classified secrets from U.S. biosafety level four (BSL-4) laboratories.

Who were the recipients of America's top national security information and her corporations' intellectual property and financial secrets? Were President Obama, Brennan, and Clapper actively transferring America's most critical secrets to her adversaries Russia, China, and Iran? If President Obama's Iran nuclear deal is any indication, we should be very concerned.

The illegally-commandeered HAMMER, however, has a secret log that preserves a record of those who accessed illegally-harvested files, according to Montgomery. That secret log also preserves a record of who sent out those illegally-harvested files and to whom or where they were sent.

President Obama, Brennan, and Clapper did not know about this secret log.

Lindsey Graham Must Ask Comey: Where Are The 47 'HAMMER' Hard Drives Of Spygate Evidence That Comey Buried?

By Mary Fanning and Alan Jones | September 28, 2020

If Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Lindsey Graham (R-SC) has any intention of getting to the truth when he questions former FBI Director James Comey about the FBI's Crossfire Hurricane investigation this Wednesday, September 30, 2020, he will ask Comey about THE HAMMER and the 47 computer hard drives of evidence of illegal domestic surveillance that CIA contractor-turned whistleblower Dennis Montgomey turned over to Director Comey's office in August of 2015.

Questions Senator Graham Must Ask James Comey About THE HAMMER, The 47 Hard Drives, And Comey's Admission That He "Used To Be A Communist"

- Mr. Comey, where are the 47 hard drives of evidence provided to the FBI by Dennis Montgomery? We know from your former FBI General Counsel James Baker's 2018 testimony that the FBI took custody of those hard drives while you were the director.
- Did you place those hard drives in your home safe?
- Did you turn those hard drives over to someone else?
- What did you do with the information stored on those hard drives?
- Do the hard drives remain in your possession?
- Did you sell any of the information contained on the hard drives?
- You told New York Magazine that you used to be a communist and that you don't know what you are now. Mr. Comey, are you still a communist?

In 2018, Comey's former FBI General Counsel James Baker testified before a joint congressional committee that Montgomery, through an attorney, had told the FBI that that he was in possession of information about illegal domestic surveillance conducted by the U.S. government:

> Dennis Montgomery, who I believe, to the best of my recollection, he said that he had been a U.S. Government contractor and, in the course of that work, had come across evidence of unlawful surveillance by the government of Americans — and including government officials — and wanted to give that information to the Bureau, which eventually did take place.

Under limited immunity agreements provided by FBI General Counsel James Baker and Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis, Montgomery turned over the 47 hard drives at the FBI Miami Field Office on August 19, 2015.

Baker had dispatched Comey's two "right hand men," FBI Special Agents William Barnett and Walter Giardina to Florida to retrieve Montgomery's 47 hard drives.

Before Montgomery turned over the hard drives to Comey's FBI, Montgomery travelled to Washington D.C. in 2014 where he met with U.S. District Court Senior Judge Royce C. Lamberth, the one-time head of the FISA court.

Judge Lamberth verified Montgomery's security clearance and the highly classified evidence that Montgomery presented. Judge Lamberth recognized that some of that TS/SCI and SAP classified information that Montgomery presented had previously come before Judge Lamberth.

Initially, Judge Lamberth took Montgomery's classified information to FBI Director James Comey, who did nothing with it.

Judge Lamberth also presented Montgomery's evidence to several Members of Congress. Most expressed immediate concern over finding out whether there had been any illegal surveillance data collected on them. "Am I in there?" was a typical response. Blackmail and leverage is a powerful weapon. Jeffrey Epstein certainly knew that.

Subsequently, Judge Lamberth took Montgomery's evidence to Lamberth's long-time associate, FBI General Counsel James Baker. Baker proceeded, with Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis, to strike two limited immunity agreements for Dennis Montgomery. One agreement was for the production of evidence. The other was for Montgomery's testimony.

That evidence production took place when Montgomery turned over the 47 hard drives to FBI Special Agents William Barnett and Walter Giardina. Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis accompanied Special Agents Barrett and Giardina to Florida in August of 2015, according to Montgomery.

After the FBI verified the information on Montgomery's 47 hard drives, Special Agents Barnett and Giardina and Assistant U.S. Attorney Curtis debriefed Montgomery while he was under oath and being videotaped in a sensitive compartmented information facility (SCIF) at the FBI Washington Field Office in December 2015.

"BARNETT believed the prosecution of FLYNN by SCO [Special Counsel's Office] was used as a means to 'get TRUMP, '" according to the FBI's 302 report of William Barnett's September 17, 2020 interview.

Montgomery's spygate evidence, 47 computer hard drives, contains proof that President Barack Obama and his intelligence chiefs John Brennan and James Clapper illegally commandeered the foreign surveillance supercomputer known as THE HAMMER and unlawfully used it to illegally spy on Donald Trump for over five years according to Montgomery. The extended Trump family and their 17 businesses were also under illegal surveillance.

Montgomery confirmed during a May 14, 2017 radio interview that he worked as a CIA contractor for Brennan and Clapper and that under President Obama, Brennan and Clapper spied on Donald Trump.

"I provided to the FBI 17 businesses of Donald Trump, including the Trump Tower, the Trump leasing programs, all of these different programs, and including Trump himself and the various family members that had been wiretapped under these programs," Montgomery said in the interview. "There has been a wiretap on Trump for years."

Those five years span Trump's time as a private citizen, including as a presidential candidate. Donald Trump was also spied upon as the duly elected President of the United States.

Montgomery revealed that the CIA feared Trump.

President Obama, Brennan, and Clapper also had General Michael Flynn and Flynn's extended family under illegal surveillance with THE HAMMER.

According to Montgomery, of the 47 hard drives, at least 18 were purchased by the FBI, the CIA, or the Department of Defense. Montgomery states that he is in possession of receipts proving that the U.S. government purchased and provided the hard drives that were used to store the illegally-harvested domestic surveillance data. These are the hard drives which Robert Mueller had previously gone to great lengths to get back into his possession.

Montgomery maintains that Robert Mueller's FBI provided the computers for THE HAMMER.

Montgomery designed and built THE HAMMER as a foreign surveillance tool to keep America safe from terrorists after 9/11.

"THE HAMMER" foreign surveillance system featured multiple echelons of safeguards and sign-offs designed to restrict intelligence personnel, up to and including the President of the United States, from exploiting the system to conduct unlawful domestic surveillance, Military sources told The American Report.

Under the Obama administration, Brennan and Clapper illegally commandeered THE HAMMER, moved it to Fort Washington, Maryland in February 2009, and transformed THE HAMMER into an illegal domestic surveillance system in order to spy on President Obama's political enemies, according to Montgomery. Brennan and Clapper used that illegally-collected domestic surveillance data for " for "blackmail and leverage" on 38 million innocent Americans.

Montgomery turned over evidence of illegal domestic surveillance to Director Comey's office in 2015 in an effort to alert the FBI that Brennan, Clapper, and other traitorous officials in the Obama administration had engaged in illegal domestic surveillance. The CIA holds no charter to conduct domestic surveillance on Americans. The FBI, which had once been the nation's premier law enforcement agency, did nothing.

Once Director Comey, a close friend and associate of Robert Mueller, had his hands on the 47 hard drives, he buried that evidence somewhere within, or perhaps beyond, the bureau.

Comey's actions assured that the evidence on the 47 hard drives could not be used to prosecute President Obama's egregious spygate activities.

The illegal surveillance of Donald Trump, General Michael Flynn, U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts, Justice Antonin Scalia, one time presiding judge of the FISA court Judge Reggie Walton, 156 Article III judges, over one hundred Members of Congress, government agencies, over 90,000 law firms, business leaders, churches and synagogues, is no small matter.

Comey orchestrated a number of cover ups, including Hillary Clinton's use of a private email server to send and receive classified information.

Clinton selling over 20 percent of U.S uranium, a strategic asset, to a military adversary, would have had anyone else dangling from the end of a rope for the crime of treason.

The question is, will Lindsey Graham stand up to his Deep State colleagues. Will he stand in protection of the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights, as America's founding fathers would have done.

Does Lindsey Graham have the wherewithal to fill the boots of great men who came before him? Or will he capitulate to the traitor class?

James Comey, John Brennan, James Clapper, Barack Obama, among others, stole the keys to the kingdom. They seek to steal America and freedom. The American people will fight back.

> "If ye love wealth better than liberty, the tranquility of servitude better than the animating contest of freedom, go home from us in peace. We ask not your counsels or your arms. Crouch down and lick the hands which feed you. May your chains set lightly upon you, and may posterity forget that you were our countrymen."

A Criminal Enterprise: Were Mueller's FBI Raids On Binney And Wiebe A Message To Montgomery?

By Mary Fanning and Alan Jones | September 27, 2020

Twelve of FBI Director Robert Mueller's special agents raided the homes of NSA whistleblowers J. Kirk Wiebe and William Binney on July 26, 2007.

Wiebe was a former NSA senior analyst and Binney was the former NSA Technical Director of the World Geopolitical and Military Analysis Reporting Group.

Mueller ordered the raid of former NSA officials Binney and Wiebe six long years after Binney and Wiebe had left the NSA in October 2001. A six-year lull is an eternity when tracking down evidence. The FBI's six year delay only raises questions about Robert Mueller's true motives.

Why did 12 FBI agents bust into both Binney and Wiebe's homes, with guns drawn?

Preposterously, one of those FBI agents held a gun to Binney's head as Binney stepped out of the shower.

The FBI agents rummaged through everything, taking anything they wanted while keeping the homeowners outside under armed guard for seven hours. The FBI stated that they were looking for evidence.

How does that make any sense? If Binney and Wiebe had anything, it would have been long gone after seven years. Why wait seven years to raid their homes if national security and seeking evidence was Mueller's true intent.

Eventually, the FBI returned Binney and Wiebe's property. Surprisingly, a sheepish FBI agent delivered their property directly to their homes.

Had the FBI raided Binney and Wiebe's homes for another reason altogether?

According to Kirk Wiebe, the answer is yes.

In a recent interview on Operation Freedom, Kirk Wiebe told Dr. Dave Janda that the real reason the FBI raided his home "was to send a message to other people to keep quiet" and as a warning not to become a whistleblower.

Wiebe stated during that September 26, 2020 interview:

> It took them awhile to do it … we [Binney and I] left [the NSA] in 2001 and we got raided by the FBI in 2007, July 26 — a date that will live in infamy, for those of us who went through it. But, isn't it curious that if we were such big threats to security that it took them six years to get to us? Well that tells you a lot about the true agenda. The true agenda was to send a message to other people to keep quiet. Don't be a whistleblower. That's what it was all about.

Was Robert Mueller sending a message? Was that message, in fact, intended for Dennis Montgomery?

Considering the timeline of events that had taken place between Montgomery and Mueller's FBI, one might think so.

The government had already had their way with Montgomery. In September 2006, Director of National Intelligence John Negroponte invoked the state secrets privilege and a government protective order — essentially a gag order — on Dennis Montgomery. If Montgomery ever discussed any classified information, he could spend the rest of his life in prison for violating the Espionage Act.

Following the FBI raid on Montgomery's home, Montgomery ended up in a court case against the FBI. The FBI came up with the short end of the stick when U.S. Magistrate Valerie Cooke found in Montgomery's favor, not only ordering the FBI to return Montgomery's property, but warning Mueller's FBI that FBI agents had presented false information and falsified affidavits.

Cooke threatened to throw FBI agents in jail.

Montgomery had won the first round with Judge Cooke. The FBI had to return Montgomery's property. Judge Pro then weighed in, upholding Cooke's ruling on March 19, 2007.

Mueller now needed a new tactic.

The FBI's seemingly out-of-the-blue raids on Binney and Wiebe came just four short months after Judge Pro's ruling in favor of CIA contractor Montgomery.

Though Montgomery became a whistleblower in 2015, Mueller eventually got what he was seeking.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curits and FBI Special Agents Barnett and Giardina were dispatched to Miami in 2015 to retrieve the 47 hard drives from Dennis Montgomery.

Under two immunity agreements, Montgomery provided James Comey's FBI 47 computer hard drives in August 2015 and sworn testimony in December 2015, after the FBI had verified the 47 hard drives. The FBI now had back in hand the evidence of illegal domestic surveillance.

The hard drives contained evidence that, according to Montgomery, proves that President Obama, John Brennan, and James Clapper illegally surveilled Donald Trump and Michael Flynn, along with 38 million other innocent Americans, with THE HAMMER.

Comey's FBI buried Montgomery's evidence. None of the perpetrators of illegal domestic surveillance were prosecuted under the Obama administration.

Montgomery contends that Robert Mueller's FBI provided the computers for THE HAMMER.

FBI and DOJ officials involved in Montgomery's whistleblower case, including FBI Director James Comey, Deputy Assistant Director of the FBI's Counterintelligence Division Peter Strzok, FBI attorney Lisa Page, FBI Special Agents William Barnett and Walter Giardina, and DOJ Assistant U.S. Attorney Deborah Curtis, went on to serve on Special Counsel Mueller's hoax Russian collusion investigation.

Curtis, Giardina, and Barnett went on to prosecute General Michael Flynn in what is now known to be a complete and utter miscarriage of justice.

It is particularly interesting that FBI Special Agent William Barnett, who was involved in CIA whistleblower Dennis Montgomery's case and was a member of Mueller's Russian Collusion team, and was also involved in the prosecution of General Flynn, has apparently changed his tune.

According to the FBI's 302 report of Barnett's September 17, 2020 interview, "BARNETT believed the prosecution of FLYNN by SCO [Special Counsel's Office] was used as a means to 'get TRUMP.'"

The Obama administration's DOJ and both Director Mueller's FBI and Director Comey's FBI, instead of stopping crimes, were committing them. Perhaps, these were the most egregious crimes in America's history.

National Geographic Bin Laden Special Confirms HAMMER CIA Whistleblower Dennis Montgomery Was Correct: Al-Qaeda Hid Messages In Videos

Peter Bergen And Nelly Lahoud Of Soros-Funded New America Featured In National Geographic Bin Laden Special Confirming Al-Qaeda Encrypted Messages In Videos

By Mary Fanning and Alan Jones | September 11, 2020

Dennis Montgomery, the former CIA contractor framed ten years ago by journalists of dubious repute for supposedly selling "hoax" technology to the CIA that could detect encrypted al-Qaeda messages embedded in videos broadcast over the Al-Jazeera TV network, was proven correct last night during National Geographic's new television special "Bin Laden's Hard Drive."

The National Geographic special, presented by CNN national security analyst Peter Bergen, premiered on the eve of the 19th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks.

According to the National Geographic program, Navy SEALs who raided Bin Laden's compound in Abbottabad, Pakistan on May 2, 2011 and killed the al-Qaeda leader also captured a large stash of Bin Laden's collection of pornographic images and videos that the terrorist had stored on digital media.

The National Geographic special stated that Bin Laden was able to encrypt secret messages into pornographic videos and distribute those video files to other al-Qaeda terrorists under his command. The program explained that the purpose of the encrypted pornographic videos was to exchange messages while avoiding detection by U.S. intelligence agencies that were attempting to intercept al-Qaeda communications and to locate Bin Laden.

This new confirmation that Bin Laden and al-Qaeda encrypted messages into video files is vindication for Dennis Montgomery.

Montgomery is the software designer, and subsequently CIA contractor-turned-whistleblower, who developed technology that could detect and decrypt secret messages hidden in al-Qaeda videos broadcast over the Al-Jazeera network.

From late 2009 to 2011, Montgomery was mocked as a "fraud" and a "con artist" in a media campaign of hit pieces carried by The New York Times, NPR, Playboy Magazine, and other outlets.

President Obama, John Brennan, and James Clapper had illegally commandeered the "foreign" surveillance supercomputer system known as THE HAMMER that Montgomery designed and built in 2003 to keep America safe after 9/11. According to multiple military sources, "THE HAMMER worked" and was successful in keeping America safe after 9/11 and also helped to protect U.S. troops on the battlefield.

Even as those hit pieces were rolled out by journalists James Risen, Eric Lichtblau, and Aaron Rostom, among others, Montgomery had already been hired back by John Brennan and James Clapper.

In 2017, Lichtblau resigned in disgrace from his "investigative unit" editing job at CNN, which he only held for ten weeks, over a fake news story that attempted to connect President-elect Donald Trump to Russia. CNN retracted the story after it spectacularly fell apart.

According to Montgomery, Lichtblau, like Aaron Rostom, continues to contact Montgomery, seeking information.

Montgomery, however, could not speak to the truth because in 2007 Director of National Intelligence John Negroponte had invoked the State Secrets Privilege and a government protective order against him. Montgomery could not violate those government muzzles without risking life imprisonment.

Those various hit pieces cited sources within the intelligence community that claimed Montgomery's technology to detect encrypted messages in videos aired on Al-Jazeera was a hoax used to bamboozle the CIA and the U.S. Air Force in order to win lucrative defense contracts.

The New York Times wrote in 2011:

> Mr. Montgomery and his associates received more than $20 million in government contracts by claiming that software he had developed could help stop Al Qaeda's next attack on the United States. But the technology appears to have been a hoax.

The new National Geographic special on Bin Laden now provides even further vindication of Montgomery's national defense work.

"The Department of Justice issued a lifetime gag order on me in the form US Protective Order and State Secrets Privilege preventing me from disclosing the method and hardware Osama Bin Laden was using to accomplish this task," Montgomery stated.

The National Geographic program is an important development because in 2015 Montgomery provided the DOJ and the FBI with 47 hard drives of evidence that he says proves that President Obama, John Brennan, and James Clapper used THE HAMMER to spy on Donald Trump, General Michael Flynn, and 38 million innocent Americans. The CIA holds no charter to spy inside the United States on Americans.

FBI Director Robert Mueller provided the computers for THE HAMMER, according to Montgomery.

Soros-Funded New America's Peter Bergen Of CNN And Nelly Lahoud Featured In National Geographic Special

Two principles of National Geographic's "Bin Laden's Hard Drive" special are Peter Bergen and Nelly Lahoud of New America [previously the New America Foundation], a far-left think tank funded by George Soros family foundations.

CNN's Bergen, Peter Arnett, and photographer Peter Jouvenal, jointly interviewed Bin Laden in 1997, becoming the first Western television journalists to do so.

Bergen and a panel of experts analyzed "nearly 470,000 digital files. 250 gigabytes of data. Over 100 USB drives, DVDs and CDs. Five computers. And multiple cell phones" according to a National Geographic press release announcing "Bin Laden's Hard Drive."

The CEO of New America is Anne-Marie Slaughter, former State Department Director of Policy Planning under Secretary Hillary Clinton.

Peter Bergen is New America's Vice President of Global Studies and Fellows.

As of November 2019, Atlantic Media owner David G. Bradley was acting chairman of New America's board of directors. Bradley's magazine The Atlantic just published the anonymously sourced hit piece that accused President Trump of calling U.S. troops who died in war "suckers" and losers." Those assertions were denied by all in attendance with President Trump, including PNAC (Project for the New American Century) globalist John Bolton.

Jonathan Soros, son of billionaire George Soros, was New America's co-chair and a member of its board of directors, according to Wired.

"Eric Schmidt, Google's executive chairman, chaired the New America Foundation think tank until 2016," according to the New York Times.

"New America received over $2 million in donations from the Jennifer and Jonathan Allan Soros Foundation, according to Influence Watch.

New America also received millions of dollars from George Soros' Foundation to Promote Open Society, Influence Watch says.
